

Patients & Visitors

At Chinese Hospital, we strive to make sure all our patients are well cared for and their stay is as comfortable as possible. This means we also want to make sure loved ones visiting have convenient access while respecting patients and other visitors. This section of the website offers information about how to prepare for procedures and what to expect before, during and after the hospital stay.